

GLOBAL STATES

May 5 - 6, 2006
at UC Irvine

A conference hosted by the graduate students in the Department of Comparative Literature

Featuring a keynote dialogue between:

Gayatri Spivak & Judith Butler

Avalon Foundation Professor in the Humanities at Columbia University

Maxine Elliot Professor in Rhetoric and Comparative Literature at UC Berkeley

Friday, May 5

All panels in HIB 135 except*

9:00 - 10:30 Counter States

10:30 - 12:00 Imagistic Collectivities

1:00 - 2:30 Disjunctured Resemblance,
Intersubjective Drag

* 1:00 - 2:30 Experimental Film Shorts (HIB 110)

2:30 - 4:00 {Re}defining us and them:
Crossing the Line

* 2:30 - 4:00 Experimental Film Shorts (HIB 110)

4:00 - 6:00 Emerging Scholars Panel

Saturday, May 6

9:00 - 10:30 Contesting Colonial
Inscriptions (HIB 135)

9:00 - 10:30 Politics of Return (HIB 341)

10:30 - 12:00 Affective Capital (HIB 135)

10:30 - 12:00 Queer Be/Longings (HIB 341)

1:00 - 2:30 Interstitial Subjectivations (HIB 135)

1:00 - 2:30 Remote Control (HIB 341)

2:30 - 4:00 Global Hauntings (HIB 135)

4:30 - 6:30 Gayatri Spivak and
Judith Butler Closing Dialogue (HH 178)

Sponsored By:

UCI Department of Comparative Literature, Humanities Center, International Center for Writing and Translation, Critical Theory Emphasis, Critical Theory Institute, Ph.D. Program in Visual Studies, Department of French and Italian, Department of German, Department of History, Department of English, Postmodern Culture, Philosophy Graduate Students, UC Humanities Research Institute, Department of Asian American Studies, Program in Women's Studies