

Phillip Anthony Ninomiya

University of California, Irvine
Department of History
200 Murray Krieger Hall
Irvine, CA 92697-3275
949-824-6521
par@uci.edu

EDUCATION

- 2012 PhD student, History, University of California, Irvine
- 2007 MA, Latin American Studies, University of California, Los Angeles Thesis: "Asian Identities in Seventeenth-Century Colonial Mexico"
- 2002 BA, Japanese and Spanish with Honors, University of California, Los Angeles

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2013-2015 Teaching Assistant (American History and World History), University of California, Irvine History Department
- 2008-2012 Adjunct Instructor (Japanese), Long Beach City College
- 2007-2011 Teacher (Spanish, Japanese, Art), Saint John Bosco High School
- 2007 Teaching Assistant (Japanese), UCLA Asian Languages and Cultures Department
- 2002-2005 Assistant Language Teacher (English), Japan Exchange and Teaching Program

AWARDS & HONORS

- 2014 Summer Research Grant, UCI Center for Asian Studies
- 2014 Charles and Anne Quilter Summer Research Award, UCI History Department
- 2014 Selected Alternate and Honorable Mention, Ford Foundation Predoctoral Fellowship, National Research Council of the National Academies
- 2013 Honorable Mention, Ford Foundation Predoctoral Fellowship, National Research Council of the National Academies
- 2012 Eugene Cota-Robles Fellowship, UCI Graduate Division (2012-2017)
- 2012 Graduate Dean's Recruitment Fellowship, UCI Graduate Division
- 2012 Competitive Edge Summer Research Program, UCI Graduate Division
- 2006 Summer Research Grant, UCLA Latin American Center
- 2005 Graduate Opportunity Fellowship Award, UCLA Graduate Division (2005-2006)
- 2002 Richard Reeve Undergraduate Essay Competition Winner, UCLA Spanish Department
- 2001 Undergraduate Student Book Collection Competition First Place Winner, UCLA Library
- 2000 Richard Reeve Undergraduate Essay Competition Winner, UCLA Spanish Department

CONFERENCE PAPERS

- “Networks of Profit: The Trade and Commerce of Asian Goods in Colonial Mexico” presented at History Graduate Student Association Conference, UC Irvine, May 2014
- “The Social Networks of Asian Commodities in Colonial Mexico” presented at Early Cultures
Graduate Student Conference, UC Irvine, April 2014
- “The Asian Community of Colonial Puebla de los Ángeles” presented at Symposium on Asians in the Americas, Malibu, September 2013
- “Los Chinos Poblanos: A Study of Asians in the Spanish Colonial City of Puebla de los Ángeles” presented at New Perspectives on Transpacific Connections: The Americas and the South Pacific Conference, Munich, April 2013
- “Los Xapones: A Study of the Lives and Identities of Japanese in Seventeenth-Century New Spain” presented at Symposium on Asians in the Americas, Cape Girardeau, September 2012
- “Los Chinos Poblanos” presented at Competitive Edge Summer Research Symposium, UC Irvine, July 2012
- “Asians at Work: Chinos and Labor in New Spain” presented at Rocky Mountain Council for Latin American Studies, Park City, March 2012
- “Asian Identities in Seventeenth-Century Colonial Mexico” presented at American Society for Ethnohistory Annual Conference, Pasadena, October 2011
- “¡Japonerías! ¡Chinerías! Por lujo y nada más; A Study of the Portrayal of East Asia within the Works of Latin American Modernistas” presented at UCSB Hispanic and Lusophone
Literatures, Cultures, and Linguistics Annual Conference, Santa Barbara, May 2007
- “When the Shōgun met the Visorrey: an Analysis of Chimalpahin’s Descriptions of the Japanese in the Early Seventeenth Century” presented at American Society for Ethnohistory Annual Conference, Williamsburg, November 2006

ARCHIVAL RESEARCH

- 2014 National, prefectural and ecclesiastical archives, Manila, Philippines and Sendai, Japan
- 2012 State and notarial archives, Colima, Morelia, Puebla and Toluca, Mexico
- 2012 National archive, Guatemala City, Guatemala
- 2011 State archives in Campeche and Mérida, Mexico
- 2009 Prefectural and ecclesiastical archives, Nagasaki, Japan
- 2008 Hispanic Society of America, New York City
- 2006 National, state and notarial archives, Mexico City and Guadalajara, Mexico
- 2006 Cataloger of colonial Mexican documents in Spanish and Nahuatl, UCLA Library Department of Special Collections

UNIVERSITY SERVICE

2014 President, History Graduate Student Association, UC Irvine
2013 Secretary, History Graduate Student Association, UC Irvine
2013 Volunteer, Student Outreach and Retention Center, UC Irvine

LANGUAGES

Spanish:	native fluency	advanced paleography
Japanese:	advanced fluency	basic paleography
Nahuatl:	basic fluency	intermediate paleography